Lavalier and Ristretto Windjammer (Furry)

Designed for use with Lavalier microphones worn on the outside of clothing, the Lavalier Windjammer (or Furry) is the most heavy-duty of the Rycote windshields for personal microphones.

In recognition of the fact that most broadcasters today prefer their microphones to remain as unobtrusive as possible, a re-engineered version of the Windjammer has now been added to the product line which is more discreet on camera. The fur on the new Ristretto, as it is known, is considerably shorter than that on the existing Lavalier Windjammer.

Like the existing Rycote Lavalier Windjammer, the Ristretto is secured to its microphone by a foam connector, but a rubber ring has now been added to both products for better grip and retention. Suitable for use in windy outdoor interview conditions, the Lavalier Windjammer Range greatly reduces microphone noise and clothes rustle, while also providing up to 15dB wind-noise attenuation.

Lavalier & Mini Lavalier Foams

Made of durable, high quality open-cell acoustic foam, Lavalier Foam windshields can give useful pop and wind-noise attenuation without seriously affecting high frequency response.

Engineered exclusively for Rycote, this high quality foam is resistant to the damaging effects of moisture and UV light.

Lavalier Foam Windshields are available to fit a wide range of personal microphones, with Mini Lavalier Foams being used for the smallest models of microphones

Both types of Lavalier Foams can also be fitted with an additional Lavalier Windjammer (Furry) for use in windier conditions.

Stickies

Stickies are double-sided adhesive pads, used to affix personal microphones directly onto the skin and clothing, or even musical instruments and furniture. The pads are sandwiched with a soft fabric to prevent the mount from creaking when the mic is attached. The materials used are hypoallergenic and the adhesive does not transfer to clothes, polished surfaces or microphone grilles.
